

Final Project Proposal

Project Proposal Format (1 Page) Font size 10.

The Project proposal submission should contain:

1. Title
2. Student Id and Name
3. Introduction
 - 3.1. An overview of the problem domain and summary of the solutions to the problem. This section should state very specifically what the subject of the proposed project is.
4. Project Objective:
 - 4.1. Major objectives of the Project.
5. Description and Methodology of the proposed Project:
 - 5.1. Explain clearly of what is being proposed and significance of the proposed project. In describing the proposed project, be explicit about any hypotheses or underlying assumptions you will be using.
 - 5.2. High-level outline of proposed methodological approaches to achieving project objectives.
6. Resources:
 - 6.1. Details on the resources needed to successfully complete the proposed project, that includes, dataset, tools, software, hardware etc.
7. Learning Experience
 - 7.1. Summarize what will be take away for you or your team from this project.
8. Deliverables
 - 8.1. List down the task you will be completing in your project, this normally reflects the completion of objectives you set for your project,
9. References/Bibliography

Important Note:

- The project must cover the topics of the course.
- Once the project is approved you cannot change the topic, or a team member.
- Plenty of (-2) will be applied for the late submission.
- Presentation is must from every member of the team (10 min presentation)
- Max 3-member team is allowed, You can work alone if you don't want to be in a team.

Submission

- Proposal document
- PowerPoint presentation (by the end of the day on the presentation date)